

Interview with Bryan Gallagher from RealityGossip.tv

How is Paris in person? Is she really as nice as she seems, or snobby at all?

Paris is very nice in person. She's not snobby, she's a really sweet, funny girl.

What is something that happened behind the scenes that people wouldn't know about?

We got bored a lot!

How was Japan with Paris? What did you guys do while the cameras weren't rolling?

Japan was amazing. It was so different there and their culture is awesome. I'd love to go back. When the cameras weren't rolling, we went shopping and ate Japanese food.

How did being on a reality show affect your life? Do you get recognized?

It has definitely made an impact on my life. A lot of people recognize me and will come up to me asking for pictures and everything. Some people scream "BFF!" at me when I'm walking down the street and stuff.. it's pretty funny.

If you could do it over, are you glad you did the show?

Yes, I'm very glad I did the show because I got to meet so many interesting people and I got to go to Japan!

Do you still keep in touch with Paris or anyone else from the show?

Yes I do keep in touch with a select few :)

Are you bitter towards anyone or anything that happened on the show?

Not at all.

What are your future plans? Can we look forward to seeing you on T.V. again soon?

Hopefully! I'd love to be back on TV again, maybe show off the party side of me, seeing that didn't really get aired!

Do you have any gossip for our readers that you learned while (or after) being on the show?

My lips are sealed :X
